

ST JOHN'S CE SCHOOL BURSCOUGH PTFA

CODE OF CONDUCT

Introduction

This Code of Conduct binds both committee and non-committee members of St John's CE School Burscough PTFA.

These guidelines describe the basic expectations for behaviour and the importance for all members to conduct themselves professionally and ethically, and will run alongside our constitution, which is a legally binding document.

In order for the PTFA to function successfully it is essential that all members agree to follow these guidelines while in acting in association with the PTFA.

The Code

- Any parent or guardian of a pupil attending St John's CE School Burscough and all members of school staff are deemed to be members of the PTFA, with the vested interest in enhancing the school for all pupils.
- All work done on behalf of the PTFA is voluntary and is done for no personal gain.
- All members will act in the best interest of the PTFA and the school.
- All members will be encouraged to make relevant and positive contributions to meetings they attend.
- All members have the right to be heard and must respect each other's opinions.
- All members have the right to communicate together responsibly. (St John's CE School Burscough PTFA will communicate with members via content of its Facebook page, school newsletters and text messages sent from school. St John's CE School Burscough PTFA also has an email address should anyone wish to use to make contact stjohnsburscoughptfa@aol.co.uk Any matters relating to the school, should be directed to the school office.
- Any items emailed through to the PTFA email address may not be answered immediately. All committee members work on behalf of the PTFA on a voluntary basis, in their free time and may not be able to address issues straight away. Any query raised will need to be discussed by the committee and if necessary, will be added to their next meeting agenda.

- The committee will work to the rules stated in its constitution. As per the constitution, decisions will be made by a majority vote of the elected committee members. The committee may from time to time consult with the wider membership, however the committee's decision is final.
- The committee should be made aware of any conflict of interest and the person involved should withdraw from any discussion pertaining to that subject.
- All members must respect the School and personal property.
- All paperwork and assets relating to the PTFA are the property of the PTFA, and not that of the individual. When leaving the PTFA a member should return any relevant paperwork or assets to the PTFA Committee.
- Should it be deemed by the committee that any member has disregarded this code, or their actions have brought the PTFA or the school into disrepute, the committee has the right to exclude that member from future involvement. The procedure for removal of a PTFA member or PTFA committee member is stated in the constitution.
